Committee Reports:

- Security – Ron Hess said all Block Captains are listed in the front of the newsletter. There are no reported security problems at this time.
- Website – BJ Taylor is still working on a 1957 McLeskey document and aerial photo.
- Garden Club/Colony Beautification – No report
- Clean the Bay Day – Tom McLaughlin said they picked up 150 lbs. of trash along the shoreline. The Brown family was out in force and did great work. A party for all volunteers was held at Great Neck Park and patches were presented to all participants.
- Council of Civic Organizations – BJ Taylor is our representative and has been attending meetings.
- Welcome Committee – Susanne Vigus has been busy contacting new residents and delivering cookies.
- 4th of July – We are always looking for volunteers to help in all areas! Please sign up before you leave the meeting! As a reminder, the streets will close at 10:20 for the parade and street monitors will be in place.
- Dredging – Frank Gurdziel said we have 102 out of 107 petitions needed. Janet stressed that it was important for all residents to look at the facts and not be clouded by opinions.

Old Business:

- Letter of appreciation to Cheryl McLeskey has been drafted and will be reviewed at the next Board meeting.
- Overgrown shrubs - This was addressed in the newsletter and Betsy McEnroe said the homeowners immediately cut them back.
- Speeding - The radar sign was put up for a few weeks.
- Review Block Captain program - This was addressed in the newsletter
- There was a question about the boat ramp and the turning area. It was decided to the city with the Colony given the right of use.

New Business:

- Tom McLaughlin said he called the city about a pothole by his house and they immediately came out and did a temporary fill. He was impressed they responded so quickly.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:20 p.m.

Special Guest Speaker: The Virginia Beach Police Department's Marine Patrol/Dive Team who did a spectacular presentation!

Respectfully submitted,
Susie Thesier, Secretary
